Day 1: Travel via motor coach to The Greenbrier; Bunker Tour (Welcome Dinner) Overnight White Sulphur Springs, WV

Day 2: Day at Leisure; Optional: Greenbrier Express Train Excursion with Lunch (Breakfast; Dinner) Overnight White Sulphur Springs, WV

Day 3: Morning at Leisure; Tamarack Marketplace; Return Home (Breakfast)

Day-by-Day in Detail

Wednesday, November 13th - Today, we will travel via deluxe motor coach to The Greenbrier in White Sulphur Springs, WV. Upon arrival, we will explore the resort's famous underground bunkers on a guided tour then check-in for a 2-night stay. Tonight, we will enjoy a delicious Welcome Dinner at one of the resort's restaurants.

Thursday, November 14th - Following breakfast, your day is at leisure to enjoy all this 5-Star resort has to offer - Ice skating, horse-drawn carriage rides, spa services, shopping, casino (with your $20/room slot credit!), and so much more! Alternatively, join an optional train experience on the Greenbrier Express - $99/Person, Approx 6 hrs.

- The Greenbrier Express train departs from the restored, historically important town of Cass and closely follows the clear, free-flowing Greenbrier River to the small mountain village of Durbin. The ride upriver passes through a secluded wilderness portion of the 950,000-acre Monongahela National Forest featuring beautiful scenes of forested mountains at each turn of the river. Sightings of Deer, River Otters, and Black Bear along with a wide variety of Eagles, Hawks, Ospreys, and other species of aquatic birds are common. On arrival in Durbin, an included lunch will be served.

The original 95-mile section of this railroad was first constructed in 1902 by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway with an eye toward timber resource development. It continued serving that purpose until rail traffic declined and most of the line was abandoned in 1978. Today's trip takes you on the northernmost 15-mile portion that was purchased by the West Virginia State Rail Authority. Unfortunately, a catastrophic flood in 1985 washed out major portions of this line. Thanks to a private/public initiative between the WV State Rail Authority and Durbin & Greenbrier Valley RR, the track has been reconstructed and now offers a new and different option to visitors at the iconic Cass Scenic Railroad State Park.

Friday, November 15th - After breakfast, have the morning at leisure before departing for home. For lunch, we will make a stop at one of West Virginia's premiere attractions, Tamarack Marketplace. Later, continue home, arriving this evening.
